

Art Contest

The Montreal Economic Institute (MEI) is proud to announce the winner of its Art Contest, which was launched last fall.

The musician Lindy Vopnfjord, from Toronto, won thanks to his song titled "Pitchfork Army."

The song is inspired by William Lyon Mackenzie (1795-1861), journalist and politician, who led a rebellion attempt in Upper Canada in 1837.

Lindy, who will receive a $2000 prize, said he chose Mackenzie as a historical figure because he fought against tyranny and for individual liberty.

We sincerely thank all candidates.
