

THE STATE OF QUEBEC'S HEALTH CARE SYSTEM IN NUMBERS

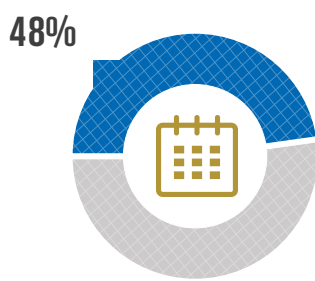

90%
Increase of net per capita public spending on health care in 30 years

25%
Percentage of the Quebec population with no regular doctor in 2012

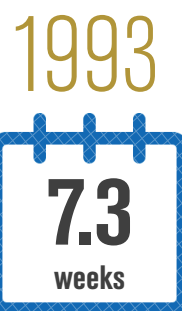

35%
Percentage of emergency room patients who had to wait 5 hours or more to be seen in 2013

48%
Percentage of patients who had to wait 6 days or more before getting an appointment with a doctor in 2013

Average number of days spent waiting for an appointment with a specialist in 2011

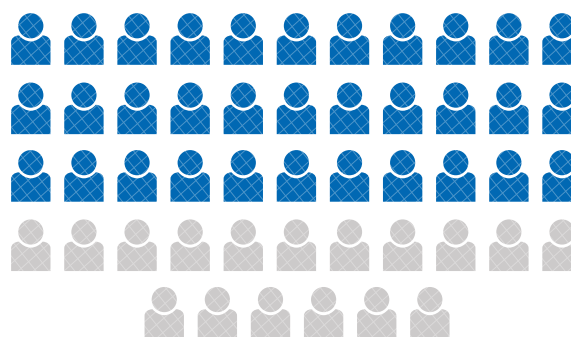

Median wait time between visiting a general practitioner and getting treatment by a specialist

$200,000,000

Amount of combined losses of salaries from the 214,144 patients waiting for medical treatment in the public system in 2012

$4000

Public health care spending per capita in 2013

66%

Proportion of Quebecers who want greater access to private health care system in 2013

SIX PROPOSED REFORMS BY THE MEI

1 Promote freedom of choice for patients and competition between care providers

2 Promote the emergence of a true private hospital market

3 Increase funding for health care through duplicate private health insurance

4 Allow mixed practice in order to increase the supply of medical specialists

5 Fund hospitals based on services rendered

6 Make the publication of hospital performance indicators mandatory